FACING EVICTION?

- Have you had lower income or higher expenses during the pandemic?

OR

- Would moving pose a significant health risk or other hardship for any member of your household?

If “YES”, you may be able to protect yourself from eviction* by delivering a “Hardship Declaration” form to your landlord NOW.

*You may still be evicted if the Housing Court finds that you engaged in behavior that infringes on the use and enjoyment of other tenants or occupants or caused a safety hazard to others.

HOW TO SUBMIT THE HARDSHIP DECLARATION FORM:

- Submit by email, certified mail, or provide it to your landlord in person.
- You can find the Hardship Declaration form in your language at: <http://www.nycourts.gov/eefpa>
- In addition to submitting to your landlord, you should also email a copy of the form to the housing court in your borough:

BRONX: BronxHardshipDeclaration@nycourts.gov

BROOKLYN: KingsHardshipDeclaration@nycourts.gov

MANHATTAN: NewYorkHardshipDeclaration@nycourts.gov

QUEENS: QueensHardshipDeclaration@nycourts.gov

STATEN ISLAND: RichmondHardshipDeclaration@nycourts.gov
